The Secret History of the English Occupation of Egypt By Wilfred Scawen Blunt

The Secret History of the English Occupation of Egypt is an inside look at the political machinations that were shaping Britain's diplomacy in a turbulent time. First published in 1871, Egypt was in political turmoil, as Britain stepped in ostensibly to take control of a nation which owed it vast sums of money. But there were other reasons, and deeper complications, which the author details through the course of this fascinating work.
