Tried and Transfigured By Leonard Ravenhill

Tried and Transfigured is one of Leonard Ravenhill's classic works on revival. The book has been out of print for years and reintroduced by Christian Life Books. Unlike many of Ravenhill's other books, this book deals with the temptation of Jesus in the wilderness and his transfiguration on the mount. It is as hard-hitting and thought provoking as all of Ravenhill's splendid works.

Editorial Review

Review

To the many thousands who have read Leonard Ravenhill's previous books, this one will need no introduction. In fact, they will probably pick it up and buy it without a second thought. This is because Mr. Ravenhill writes with an authority and anointing of the Holy Spirit that finds a ready response in the heart of the earnest Christians. In this study of the temptation and transfiguration of Christ you will be inspired, challenged (sometimes uncomfortably so), and instructed. You will find a new understanding of temptation from God's standpoint, and from your standpoint. You will thrill at the possibilities of grace when considering the transformed life He provided for us. You will be moved to prayer, to praise, and sometimes to tears. You will be blessed. Read it. --Behtany Fellowship

About the Author

If the twentieth century had a praying prophet, it was Leonard Ravenhill. Few men have had a greater impact on their generation. Thousands have been called to their knees by Ravenhill's anointed ministry. His preaching was powerful but many would say his pen was more powerful. Ravenhill's Why Revival tarries is destined to be one of the great Christian classics. Ravenhill was born in England, travelled the world and spent his last years in the United States. David Wilkerson, Steve Hill, Bill Gothard, Charles Stanley and many, many others call him a mentor.
